"Before the retreat, I wasn't sure what to expect. I arrived feeling uncertain—hoping for rest, but unsure of what I might find. What I experienced was more than I could have imagined. The most impactful moment was connecting with one of the retreat's horses. In that quiet, wordless exchange, I felt truly seen. The horse's calm, intuitive presence brought me back to myself in a powerful and healing way. By the end of the retreat, I felt completely grounded. I left with a renewed sense of purpose and clarity I didn't even realize I was seeking. I recommend this retreat for anyone looking to reconnect with themselves. It's a space for stillness, insight, and peace—and a gift I'll carry with me for a long time."

"The Peace Retreat was a powerful experience that helped me take meaningful steps toward healthier relationships and mindsets.

Progress isn't always linear, but this retreat helped me take an important step forward. I'd recommend it to anyone seeking more peace in their life—through a rustic, deeply supportive group setting guided by two truly exceptional coaches. We need more spaces like this to prioritize inner peace!"
